

An Invitation to Become an Aladdin Knight of The Mystic Light

Printed from the Aladdin Knights Web Site

This is your personal invitation, as a collector, dealer, or user of Aladdin lamps, to join the Aladdin Knights. The name of our group was taken from ceremonies the Aladdin company held over 80 years ago to give recognition and honor to its employees. Knights live in all 50 states, Canada, England, and Australia, and receive our newsletter The Mystic Light of the Aladdin Knights. The newsletter fills eight pages or more, six issues per year with first class handling. The format is 8 1/2" x 11", and is designed to complement my books, Aladdin—The Magic Name in Lamps, and Aladdin Electric Lamps, and their companion price guides.

The Mystic Light contains news articles, editors column (Light Beams), and the popular buy-sell-trade ads. It brings you firsthand information on rare Aladdins, up-to-date prices, studies by other collectors, news about The Mantle Lamp Company and Aladdin Industries, Inc., and news on other collections. Basic to our purpose is preservation of memorabilia of the kerosene and early electric era that was such an important part of rural America. The Aladdin Knights meet once each year at a central location to learn more about Aladdin lamps, improve their collections, and renew friendships. We call our conventions "Gatherings." Locations of Gatherings of Aladdin Knights:

1974	St. Charles, Illinois	1987	Paducah, Kentucky
